Have You Read Any Good Books Lately?

What do you do in the summer when you are an independent financial advisor, married with 5 young children?

Well, Timothy Ross reads voraciously and last week Tim gave K-F Rotarians an appraisal of his summer reading of over 20 books and booklets.

Tim hails from New Liskeard and graduated in 1984 from New Liskeard College of Agriculture, specializing in Farm Business management. He started his own tax practice in 1988 and now offers financial planning for his clients in Brockville. Tim has been a member of the Kiwanis Club of Brockville since 1993 serving as its president for two terms.

Tim's secret for finding time for reading is that he doesn't watch television. I think we would all agree that much of what passes for entertainment on TV today is a waste of time.

Naturally, many of Tim's book selections relate to his profession and deal with investment principles and advice, from Benjamin Graham's classic, The Intelligent Investor to Jeremy Siegel's Stocks for the Long Run. Along the way Tim found The Promise of the Future - A Financial Advisor's Guide to Effective

Timothy Ross wove an inspirational message into book reviews of his summer reading.

Marketing to be a super book for anyone working in the investment advisory business.

In addition to such financial books, Tim reveals himself to be a thoughtful and reflective person who gleans much personal pleasure and satisfaction from reading books such as Chicken Soup for the Golfer's Soul by John Canfield, Mark Victor Hansen et al, Rick Joyner's The Call, Of Wheels and Wings by John Wesley White and Half Hours with the Best Thinkers by Frank J. Finamore and Robert Fulghums Maybe, (Maybe Not). Second Thoughts from a Secret Life.

Practical considerations led to perusal if not actual

LAST WEEK -

Susan Moore

Registrar Howard Bradfield reported that, in addition to our guest speaker, Timothy Ross, 21 K-F Rotarians and one visiting Rotarian (Susan Moore) were present.

Timothy Ross

President Ken announced with great pleasure that Susan Moore will relinquish the visiting Rotarians category and will be inducted into K-F Rotary at the earliest opportunity (which appears to be November 15).

Sergeant-at-Arms Bill Murray promised there would be no fines but relented when he spotted Peter Schenk automatically reaching for his wallet. Don Hart clapped too loudly at the thought of no fines and Bill was quick to extract penance from Don. Fred Richmond was caught in the same dragnet and cajoled into making a contribution.

Susan Moore had a happy dollar “at the prospect of joining This Illustrious Club.” President Ken had a happy dollar for the Casey Family Thanksgiving Reunion at the cottage on the weekend with 18 for dinner including 3 grandchildren. Family members came from as far away as Vancouver and Wilmington, Delaware.

Peter Schenk updated us on the state of the future speakers. (See box below).

Don Hart reminded Rotarians that Tuesday, Oct.17 is the third Tuesday of the month and therefore Fairmount Musical Evening. Time is 6:30 pm, the music starts at 7:00 and ends at 8:00.

TONIGHT - Group Study Exchange - South Korea

Bliss Kelly presented the Kingston-Frontenac Rotary Club Award of $500.00 to Lindsay Mackenzie of Frontenac Secondary School on October 6. Vocational Guidance Director John Richards presented a similar award to Julie Brand of Bayridge Secondary School the same evening.

Nancy Watts

Bliss Kelly reports that Nancy Watts’ doctors have given her a clean bill of health and she won’t need to have a hip replacement. Great news, Nancy!

implementation of projects from Playhouses You Can Build, Porch and Patio Ideas and Children's Play Equipment Book. Some construction may be required - hammer, saw and work bench preferred.

On the subject of books, Tim admits to writing as well as reading. He keeps a journal and has since 1993. His grandmother who died recently also kept a journal which, although not yet available to the family, will provide a marvellous insight for future generations into her person and the society in which she lived. This is something all genealogists would wish for. Something all might consider.

For those interested in pursuing the other books Tim read this summer, they are as follows:

- Simple Wealth, Inevitable Wealth* - Nicholas Murray
- The Excellent Investment Adviser* - Nicholas Murray
- Craft of Advice - Essays 1995-98* - Nicholas Murray
- 52 Weeks of Sales Success* - Ralph R. Roberts
- Bird Watching for Dummies* - Bill Thompson III
- The Millionaire Next Door* - Thomas J. Stanley
- Secrets of the Investment All-Stars* - Kenneth Stern
- Your Money Matters* - Malcolm MacGregor
- Christian Stewards* - Waldo J. Werning
- Richest Man in Babylon* - George S. Clason
- The Bible*.

Tim was introduced by Bob Chippier and thanked by Clay Elston.
