A Word From Our Sponsor "Timothy L Ross"

Market closes for Thursday, November 30, 2000:

DOW JONES: 10414.49 / -214.62 pts or -2.02% / YTD: -9.42%

S&P 500: 1314.97 / -26.94 pts or -2.01% / YTD: -10.50%

NASDAQ: 2598.04 / -108.89 pts or -4.02% / YTD: -36.16%

TSE 300: 8819.90 / -1.2 pts or -0.01% / YTD: +4.83%

Now these numbers look a bit rough, and they are, especially if you had index funds in your portfolio. I have done a general review tonight and the year to date numbers of some of our core holdings are noted below. Over all our professional managers are protecting our capital and creating value in these difficult market times.

I am very comfortable with the way things are. This is good for the market, many speculators are being driven from the market, leaving wonderful opportunity's for investors.

International Funds: compared to above -9.42% , -10.50%, -36.16% respectively

Trimark Select Growth 9.68%
Tempelton Growth -8.93%
AIC World Advantage 11.11%
BPI Global Equity -11.74%
CI Global -3.70%
AIC Value 11.99%
BPI American Equity Value -9.39%

Japan/ Asia funds are down about -25% to -44%

Canadian Equities: compared to +4.83% respectively

Trimark Select Canadian 10.5%
Ivy Canadian 15.74%
GT Canada Growth -12.03%
CI Canadian Growth -0.75%
BPI Canadian Equity Value 27.43%
AIC Diversified Canadian 16.42%
AIC Advantage 16.1%

Money Market Funds 5.26%

Strategy:

During times like this it is a wonderful opportunity to add shares to your portfolio. Good business's are basically on sale right now. Our professional money managers are in the best position to locate these opportunity's. There is a number of strategies that you could implement, and I would be happy to discuss your situation with you.

Knowledge + Action = Faith
